

Alberta's Consulting Architects are business owners and managers working in independent architectural or multidisciplinary design firms to create innovative planning and building design solutions for their clients. As active CAA members, these business owners are influential senior decision-makers in their companies.

As a sponsor, your name, brand and company is positioned as a key supporter and promoter of CAA members and the design industry in Alberta. Together, we carry out good business practices benefiting your companies and Alberta industry. CAA member firms will become aware of your products and services. CAA recognizes sponsors, on a regular basis, encouraging the membership to show their appreciation. Strategic logo recognition on CAA's website, in newsletters, e-notices and at events increase both visibility and public awareness.
