

The CAA would like to thank The Edmonton Construction Association for its continued generous support as a Silver Sponsor!

The Edmonton Construction Association (ECA) was incorporated in 1931 and is today the largest Non-Profit Construction Association serving the Commercial, Institutional, and Industrial Construction Industry in Western Canada.

ECA exists to advance the construction industry, through effective representation and service to our 1,100+ member firms. We are a member-driven organization – founded on the principles of integrity, leadership, quality, and value – and dedicated to excellence and innovation.
